TERMS AND CONDITIONS OF MEMBERSHIP

About 70% of the membership fee goes to British Riding Clubs (based on 40 members). This covers the Club's insurance, members insurance while participating at club events and HQ administration costs. The rest covers our administration costs in sending out newsletters, newflashes etc. All new members must pay a joining fee of £3.50, as must current members who have let their membership lapse for more than two months from 1 January in that year.

DATA PROTECTION ACT

Your personal information will be held and used in accordance with the data protection act 1998. SDRC will not disclose such information to any unauthorised person or body, but where appropriate will use the information to carry out its various functions and services. Your information will be sent to British Riding Clubs for their database and to enable them to send you essential information and your free Rider magazine. We will also, from time to time, send you information about equestrian events or competitions that we think you may be interested in. Should you object to this, please notify Kerry Alexander by email or in writing.
